

Contact: Jackie Ramos

730 W. Cheyenne Avenue
Suite 140-150
N. Las Vegas, NV 89030
702-633-4464

info@congressofracialequality.org

Press Release

SEMINAR DATE: SEPTEMBER 18, 2014
AT THE CORE COMMUNITY CENTER
FROM: 3:00 to 4:00 PM
CALL: 702-633-4464

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE AWARENESS & PREVENTION SEMINAR

- ❖ Your immigration status should NOT be a source of power or control.
 - ❖ Protect yourself, know your rights, make a difference, stay safe and get help.
 - ❖ Learn about Immigration Options for undocumented victims of crime
 - ❖ Meet and interact with distinguished women representing 17 countries and discuss security issues facing them in their countries. (professional interpreters will be on hand)
-

The Congress of Racial Equality (CORE), in partnership with church and community leaders, Safe Faith Domestic Violence Shelter and Las Vegas Metro Police, and will hold a Domestic Violence Awareness and Prevention Seminar on September 18, 2014 starting from 3:00 to 4:00 pm. The seminar will also be joined by women leaders representing 17 countries: Azerbaijan, Burma, Cyprus, Egypt, Ghana, Hungary, India, Iraq, Kenya, Macedonian, Morocco, Philippines, South Africa, South Sudan, Sudan, and Turkey. These distinguished women are on a tour of the US to discuss peace and security and many issues confronting women around the globe.

The seminar will address important issues of domestic violence:

- Defining domestic violence, the victim's legal rights, reporting and leaving the abuser, resources available, and referrals for the victim.
- Immigration options for undocumented victims of crime, and will explain the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)
- How to apply for VAWA and crimes that may be eligible for visas such as international human trafficking and false imprisonment, sexual exploitation, female genital mutilation, abusive sexual contracts, prostitution, abduction, etc.

Please join us for this very important and exciting seminar. For more information, please visit, email, or call us at 702-633-4464.